On the 25th September, Col. Vick started on a scout in the tradewater country. While stationed at Pleasant Hill, Caldwell county, Capt. J. S. Lewis captured several notorious guerrillas. He then started to return to Greenville, by the way of Providence, Web ster county. When he reached that place, he learned that Lieut. Col. Soree, of the rebel Col. After travelling seven miles, he found Lt. Col. Soree, and attacked him. After a brisk engagement of a few minutes the rebels fled, Capt. Lewis and his men pur suing them two miles, and brought on anothe fight, in which four of the rebels were killed and seven wounded, and a number of hats. caps, blankets, and bedquilts captured. Capt. Lewis acquitted himself gallantly as a soldier and an officer, and his men acted

SUNDAY BATTLES .- We have time and again took occasion to note the fact, that battles on the Sabbath universally resulted against the army that brought them on. Two recent battles may be added to the instances quoted in support of the fact. Boy's" wonder, as follows: Burbridge attacked the rebels on Sunday at Saltville, Virginia, and was not successful. The rebels attacked Sheridan near Strausburg on Sunday, and were defeated.

A correspondent of an Eastern paper intimates that the reason why some of the PLACES. extreme peace Democrats have given in to a day. The consequence was that more than McClellan's nomination is based upon a de half the traveller's time was consumed in termination that, should he be elected, if he chasing these dogs and puppies. At last he does not carry out his private pledges to be governed by the principles of the platform the administration of the Government will very much surprised to find the other on his speedily devolve upon Pendleton!

Now, how, in such a state of case Government is to be placed in the hands of some minds. But, we all recollect that saved my time and labor in taking no notice General Harrison was removed to make way for John Tyler, Gen. Prentice and the Rebel autional Hotel disease"-poison,-when he would have been succeeded by J. C. Brecknridge. With these historical facts before mind, the mode by which the traitors who controlled the Chicago Convention in the adoption of the disunion platform can place the Administration of the Government in the hands of Pendleton is very evi-

Very True and Just.

Said Gov. Bramlette, in November, 1863, -ten months after the issuing of President Lincoln's Emancipation proclamation :-"That the destruction of slavery may be the tresh from Basil Duke's command-formerly result of the war seems now a strong proba. John H. Morgan's. In his neck tie, wrap bility; but such is not the object. Who made ped in a piece of sick oilcloth, he had an this war? Was it not the rebels? This is all very true and very just. And the people of Ohio and Indiana seem to have been fully impressed with a sense of the fact that, "while the war of rebellion is upon us, ginia, on a visit to his son, Lieut. Col. Clar it is idle to talk about other objects of strife;" and so they have overwhelmed the Chicago peaceites at the polls. Let the people of Kentucky, in November, remember Gov. Bramlette's enunciations, "that the object of the dorsement: war is not the destruction of slavery;" "that above most satisfactory to you. while the war of rebellion is upon us, it is idle be received at any other point, and by "flag talk about other objects of strife;" that "to of truce boat" if preferred. reserve our nationality is the paramount duty of patriotism;" and follow his advice to "stand firmly by the Government, and It must strike loyal people as passing alone, and is doing so manfully, at a loss of adhere to its cause, no matter how widely strange, that a rebel recruiting agent is sent we may differ from the Administration or its into Kentucky by Basil Duke with a per-
